Back to God Mass

On December 7, 2025, Lithuanian Post 154 held its annual "Back to God" Mass celebration at Our Lady of Victory Church, Arbutus, Maryland.

These annual masses began during the early 1950 era when The American Legion took a strong anti-Communist stance, consistent with the Preamble to the American Legion Constitution, which begins with the words "For God and Country". The American Legion formally endorsed the "Back to God" movement with a resolution during its 1951 Miami National Convention. Prayer service and masses were soon adopted by many posts around the country. Masses in Maryland were started in 1953 by Father Anthony Dranginis, a World War II combat Marine veteran, who served as Lithuanian Post 154 Commander, Chaplain, and for many years the Department of Maryland Chaplin. With only a few exceptions, this mass has been held yearly since that time.

Our Lady of Victory Church

These services initially began in the form of Catholic military field masses held at Holy Redeemers Cemetery and later at the Baltimore National Cemetery on Memorial Day. For many years, the masses were a recurring event on the American Legion, Baltimore Division, calendar, but they wane over time. This year's mass included a remembrance of the Pearl Harbor attack and the valiant part played by our American fighting men and women in World War II.

After this year's mass, Lithuanian Post 154 members and families made their way to the Lithuanian Hall and took part in its annual Lithuanian Christmas Bazaar.

Windmills International Folk Dance Festival

Ethnic food and drink will be available.

On December 12, 2025, Lithuanian Post 154 was represented by Post Foreign Affairs Committee-man Thomas Sadauskas and Henry Gaidis at the American Legion, Department of Maryland, Fall National Security Forum, held at Post 136 in Greenbelt. In attendance were representatives from other posts and many honored guests. Among them was National Executive Committeeman Ronald L. Holcombe; Alt. NEC Ruth A. Higgins; Department Vice Commander Eric V. Wathen and Sr; National Security Commission Chair, Wayne Kaikko.

Keynote speaker at the event was past Department of Maryland Commander David Heredia. He emphasized the need for National, Department, and Local Posts to protect their computer websites from hackers both foreign and domestic. He cited many examples of such hackings and the need for all post and Legionnaire to be aware of this increasing threat. Legionnaires are discouraged from providing any person information to anyone that contacts you in any manner. In Loving Memory

Vincent Tomas Dulys

U.S. Army Veteran (1967-1970) • Faithful Legionnaire, Lithuanian Post 154

Vincent Tomas Dulys—a proud U.S. Army veteran and faithful Legionnaire of Lithuanian Post 154. Vincent served our country from 1967 to 1970, and he never stopped serving. For decades, he was a humble and steady presence in our Department, deeply committed to the Four Pillars of The American Legion.

One of Vincent's greatest passions was this very ceremony. As longtime chair of the Department's Post Everlasting Remembrance Ceremony, he ensured that every comrade—every family member—was honored with dignity, reverence, and care.

Today, we return that honor to him, and we say with full hearts: thank you, Vincent. Your devotion lives on.

To Vincent's beloved wife: thank you for sharing him with all of us.

Respectfully,

David Heredia Jr.

German Brigade Deployment in Lithuania Update

In the aftermath of the Russian annexation of Crimea in 2014, NATO established the Enhanced Forward Presence (eFP) and deployed the multinational battlegroups to the Baltic states in 2017. The battlegroup in Lithuania consisted of roughly 1600 soldiers from various NATO member states on a rotational basis. Germany has been the lead nation, contributing about 1000 troops. After the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022, Germany pledged to keep one combat brigade at higher combat readiness, ready to deploy to Lithuania within 10 days. Lithuania repeatedly requested a robust, permanent German deployment, which the German government initially declined to commit to. However, in June 2023, German Minister of Defense Boris Pistorius announced that Germany would form a new combat brigade and permanently deploy it to Lithuania.

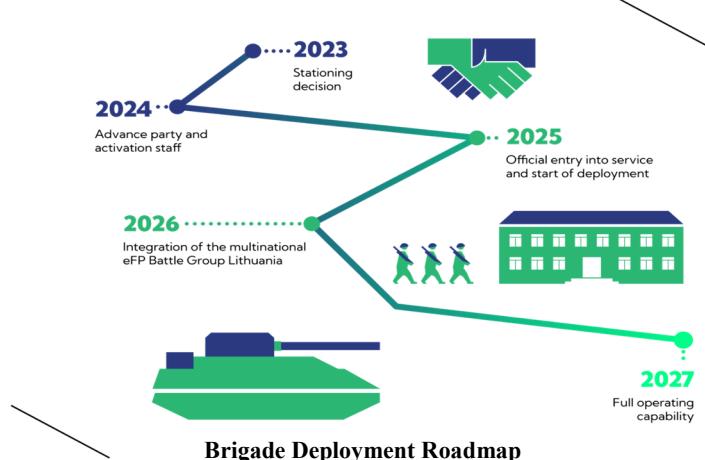

In December 2023, Lithuanian Minister of Defense Arvydas Anušauskas and his German counterpart Boris Pistorius signed a formal agreement on the planned deployment. In April 2024, an advance team of 20 officials arrived in the Lithuanian capital to organize preparatory work. The brigade was formally established on 1 April 2025, being planned to reach full operational capability in 2027.

The 45th Panzer Brigade (also known as Panzerbrigade 45 or "Lithuania Brigade") was inaugurated on 22 May 2025 with a military parade on the Cathedral Square in Vilnius. German chancellor Friedrich Merz and Lithuanian president Gitanas Nausėda attended the inauguration along with the defense ministers of both countries, Boris Pistorius and Dovilė Šakalienė.

The brigade is expected to comprise 4800 soldiers and 200 civilian staff. Further, a third of the German soldiers are expected to bring their families to Lithuania, requiring not only military infrastructure, but also civilian facilities such as German-language kindergartens and schools. German-language kindergartens and schools (such as Deutsche Schule Vilnius) have begun operating in Vilnius and Kaunas.

The bulk of the brigade will be stationed in the densely forested military facility in the Rūdninkai Training Area (near the Belarusian border) and Rukla. The base currently sees major construction to prepare for the arrival of the German brigade. Facilities will include accommodation as well as dedicated storage, maintenance, and firing ranges for battle tanks.

As of January 2026, around 500 troops were already deployed to Lithuania as part of the brigade with the initial focus on command structure development, in-theatre training, and force integration. In February 2026, the existing NATO Enhanced Forward Presence (eFP) battlegroup—led by Germany—will be structurally integrated into the brigade. The combined force will then reach around 1,800 troops, growing to approximately 2,000 German personnel by mid-2026. The brigade is scheduled to reach its full operational capacity of roughly 5,000 personnel (4,800 military and 200 civilian) by the end of 2027.

The brigade will be equipped with Leopard 2A8 tanks and Puma armored fighting vehicle will be the primary system for the mechanized infantry units. The force will eventually include artillery, reconnaissance, engineering, and medical support detachments.

The deployment is a "beacon project" of Germany's Zeitenwende (historic turning point) in security policy following Russia's 2022 invasion of Ukraine. It marks a shift from temporary rotational missions to a permanent, long-term presence aimed at ensuring that "protecting Vilnius is protecting Berlin".
